COMMISSIONERS OF DEEDS. Several prominent lawyers of this city have drafted a bill, which will shortly be submitted to the Legislaa bill, which will shortly be submitted to the Legisla-ture, increasing the number of Commissioners of Deeds for the county of New York from 300 to 500. It is claimed that the present number is not sufficient for the transaction of all the business required. The num-ber is now the same as in 1984, when the population of this city was less than 500,000. It is claimed that the number of Commissioners of Deeds should equal the number of Notaries Public.
